 continue without increasing the earned income tax rates. For more information see the website of the City of Centerville at www.ei.centerville.oh.us. 2. Annually, about half a million dollars of the City's general fund is sent directly to Washington Township. Council wishes to have more representation in the decision-making process for how Centerville's money is spent (especially with regard to the fire department and rec center). The Council Would like to receive assurances from the Washington Township Trustees that the money will be spent within Centerville to the direct benefit of the City's residents. 3. A decision on secession from the township has not been made. The city has the legal right to sececle, but it is our hope that we can work with the Trustees to improve our relationship and increase Council's influence on monetary decisions. 4. Council held its annual retreat at Yankee Trace Community Room on February 7. Many of the items discussed were included in the State of the City Address. Mr. Horn stated the following in the City Manager's Report: 1. Following a recent productive meeting with the architectural firm and the construction management firm, we may be ready to advertise in April for bids for the new public works facility. 2. At the Council retreat it was decided to have some neighborhood meetings in 2009. The first session is tentatively set at Bethany Lutheran Village on Monday, June 1. 3. Mr. Tracy Williams, Interim Director of the Washington Centerville Library, has notified us that the Library Board is requesting that the City allow its Personnel Appeals Board to hear personnel issues from the library. Legislation may come before Council this spring. Mrs. Gopman outlined zoning and property maintenance code violations and their resolutions for the month of January, 2009, as well as the community calendar for February and March 2009.
