Assistant to the City Manager Kelly Fackel

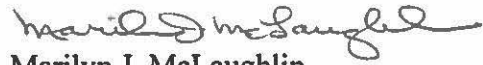

Mrs. Lienesch advised that the 1998 dues notice has been received for the National Organization to Insure a Sound Controlled Environment (NOISE). Council concurred that the City remain a member for an additional year.

Mr. Horn outlined the training programs which members of the City Staff are attending.

Mr. Horn advised that The Golf Club at Yankee Trace remains open on good weather days.

Mayor Beals made reference to a letter received from a student at the Centerville High School relative to the possible establishment of a coffee shop where teenagers could gather. Discussion followed concerning the existence of such a center at the Washington Township Hall provided by the Washington Township Recreation Center. Mayor Beals will address said correspondence.

Mr. Weaver reviewed the bids received for the purchase of refuse packers for the City of Centerville. He explained his recommendation for the purchase of a dempster packer body and dual steering on the units.

Marilyn J. McLaughlin
