In consideration of a recommendation made by Washington Township resident Mack VanAllen to Councilmember Susan Lienesch and Washington Township Trustee Roger Krass, that property sales activity be monitored, Council concurred that tax dollars not be spent for such a study.

Upon question of Mr. Singer, Mr. Horn advised that he will be meeting with Montgomery County Administrator Deborah Feldman and Sanitary Engineer James Brueggeman relative to the sanitary sewer problem in the Village South Subdivision during the current week.

Mr. Compton moved that Council convene into Executive Session to discuss imminent court action and to consider the sale of property. Mr. Kingseed seconded the motion. A roll call vote resulted in seven ayes in favor of the motion.

The following representatives from Great Traditions Land & Development Company and Yankee Trace were in attendance for this meeting.

Marilyn J. McLaughlin
Clerk of Council
