WORK SESSION MEETING
OCTOBER 7, 1991

TIME: 7:30 P.M.
PLACE: Centerville Municipal Building, Law Library

PRESENT: Mayor Shirley Heintz
Deputy-Mayor Brooks Compton
Councilmembers James Singer
C. Mark Kingseed
Mark Beasley
Sally Beals
Clerk of Council Marilyn McLaughlin
City Manager Darryl Kenning
Assistant City Manager Michael Haverland
City Engineer Norbert Hoffman
Resident Robert Looper
Stormwater Drainage Task Force Member Dick Welch

Mr. Singer, speaking as Chairman of the Stormwater Drainage Task Force Committee, introduced consultant Ted Burgess with Camp Dresser & McKee, Consultants hired by the City of Centerville to prepare a Stormwater Management Master Plan for the City.

Mr. Burgess outlined the development of the Plan, briefly explaining the background, key objectives, study area description, key Ordinance revisions, the design manual, stormwater modeling, alternative approaches to flood control, cost estimate for each drainage area and the prioritization of improvements in key initial projects. He identified the role of the Master Plan in on-going stormwater management efforts.

Discussion followed relative to overland stormwater drainage and sanitary sewer back-ups in the Terrace Villa Plat.

Mr. Singer reviewed recommendations made by the Task Force Steering Committee upon complete review of the Master Plan.

Council concurred that a Meeting be scheduled for Thursday, November 7, 1991 for interested residents to meet with Mr. Burgess to solicit answers to their drainage questions.

Mr. Kenning advised that the second layer of asphalt has been applied on the Wilmington Pike/State Route 725 intersection improvement project.

Mr. Kenning announced word received by the City of Centerville that water meter installation along the south side of East Franklin Street has been scheduled to begin in March, 1992.

Mr. Kenning advised that legislation has been received from the Ohio Department of Transportation for the reconstruction and widening of East Whipp Road, from State Route 48 eastward to its intersection with Hewitt Road, in the Cities of Kettering and Centerville. This Resolution will be placed on the October 21, 1991 Council Meeting Agenda.
