During discussions of various subjects, the majority of Council concurred on the following considerations:

- Road priorities should continue.
- Spend $3,000.00 to renovate the Wright House front building.
- Stop plan to enlarge Law Library.
- Enforce weed control Ordinance.
- New businesses should be contacted after opening.
- Mayor should meet with the Architectural Preservation District Business Association.
- Budget sessions to be on Monday evenings instead of Saturday mornings with possibility of starting at 6:00 instead of 7:30 P.M.
- Widening of Alexandersville-Bellbrook Road should become a priority.

City Council reviewed the Maintenance Code that the Zoning Task Force is addressing. When completed, the Maintenance Code will be presented to the Planning Commission, then to Council.

Future Work Sessions are to include:
Budget Meetings.
Kitty Kincaid, Director - Seniors, Inc.
Dr. Brian Forschner, Director - St. Leonards, Inc.
Jean Tarr - Volunteer Coordinator.
Officer Coffey - Crime Prevention Officer.
