Appointments to the Park and Recreation Board were discussed by Council. Council concurred that Reverend Nicholas Rachford and William T. Sowder be appointed to the two vacancies.

Mr. John Spoor, Chairman, Sister City Committee, appeared before Council to outline the Committee's financial needs for 1976. An appropriation of $600.00 would provide monies for postage, telephone calls and travel to the National Conference to be held in Mobile Alabama, August 25-28, 1976. Council concurred with this appropriation. Necessary legislation will be prepared.

The need for a Housing Code for Centerville was reviewed. The City Manager and Staff will review other Housing Codes and will present alternatives to Council for consideration.

The future improvement to Clyo Road was discussed. The most ideal situation would be escrow monies from the developers on a sliding basis. Council concurred that the developers be required to construct one lane for widened Clyo Road, the City will proceed with anticipated improvement for two years from now.

The amendment to the AP Ordinance was reviewed. Council concurred that the Board of Architectural Review revert back to their original intent. Mr. Kenning reminded Council that incorporated in this amendment is the procedure for selecting a Chairman for the Board, this question Council will have to answer when the amendment is finally considered.
