Mayor Green reviewed for Council a request received from the Centerville Historical Society for financial support to offset expenses incurred through the production of the book "A Sense of Place" in Centerville and Washington Township. Said request was referred to the Finance Committee for consideration.

A Bond Issue for the 1977 June Primary Election will be discussed during the August 23 Council Work Session.

Mr. Kenning reviewed for Council minor changes to be made to the consent legislation for improving State Route 725 just east of the west Corporation Line. Council concurred that said changes be made.

The revised fee schedule will be discussed during the next Council Work Session Meeting.

Council also concurred that the future of the Teen Center be discussed on August. 23.
