Mr. Preston Dawes, Director of the South Montgomery County Youth Services, reviewed for Council activities in Centerville April through June and presented to Council a statistical report. Mrs. Marianne Dasilva, Counselor for Centerville, illustrated types of situations dealt with in the Centerville area.

Mr. Kenning reported that an agreement is being formulated for a temporary lease for the extension of the Teen Center. Mr. Richard Ernst, Chairman of the Youth Board, reviewed progress being made to find a new Teen Center location. Council requested a further report during the September 13, 1976 Council Work Session Meeting. Mr. Kenning was directed to send a letter of proposal to the Township Trustees for continuation of the program.

City Council reviewed administrative comments and the first sixteen pages of a proposed position paper concerning the report submitted by the Washington Township Citizens Committee to Study Annexation. The first sixteen pages were approved with minor amendments to be made. The remaining report will be compiled during a future Work Session Meeting.
