PUBLIC HEARING

The Council of the Village of Centerville, County of Montgomery, State of Ohio met in Public Hearing October 31, 1966 at the Municipal Building with Mayor Paul Hoy presiding. Present were Councilmen: K. C. McClellan, John McIntire, John Davis, Richard Miller, Donald Lyons, Harold Berry, Engineer Frank Williams, and Clerk-Treasurer Ronald Budzik.

Mayor Hoy stated that this second hearing on a proposed Ordinance to provide certain new rules and regulations governing plats and subdivisions within Centerville was necessary because of various changes made in the proposed amendments since the last hearing.

The following Centerville Builders were present: Mr. Archdeacon, Mr. Zengel, Mr. Naples, and Mr. Sheley.

The builders agreed that the proposed regulations were good for the Village of Centerville if properly enforced.

The Committee who prepared the Regulations recommended that they be accepted.

Mayor Hoy and Clerk-Treasurer Ronald Budzik read the proposed Ordinance and minor corrections were noted. Mr. McIntire and Mr. Berry questioned whether the Montgomery County Numbering System should be incorporated in this Ordinance or made a separate Ordinance within itself.

Another suggestion was made to clarify the word "improvements" in the Ordinance as to when the Ordinance would take effect on subdivisions
