

Ridgeway and Rt. 48, there are trees obstructing the vision of people when they approach Rt. 48 from West Ridgeway and wondered what could be done. The Council then suggested to have the Village Engineer to get the legal location of the trees and determine if the Village can have them removed.

The Council instructed the Village Solicitor to write a letter to proper authorities the expression of the Village preference to be included in the Municipal Court district of Kettering, Ohio.

A special meeting Dec. 22, 1958 at 7:30 P.M. was set up for the purpose to close business for the year.
