

Centerville Arts Commission Meeting

March 6, 2013

The meeting was called to order at 7:20 PM by President, Ginny Strausburg.

Those present were: Ginny Strausburg, Kay Wick, Tom Bankston, Marlene Orendorf, Jim Collins & Kristen Gopman

Minutes were emailed out, however since we did not have a quorum, we could not approve them.

Art Gallery: Ginny Reported that all months are set for the year. The calendar has been emailed out. Patrick Mauk's reception will be this Sunday from 2 – 4 PM.

Classical Series: Tom Bankston reported the Feb. 16th performance of "Sid the Serpent" went very well. Sierra Kelley and Tom will work on finalizing the budget for the year.

Art at the Trace: Marlene Orendorf reported that all went well. Some minor changes for next year will be made – co-coordinating with Yankee about RSVPs and food/bar etc. Next year's date was set for February 8, 2014.

Summer Concert Series: Ginny gave the report for Walt Smucker. Everything is booked and completed for the series. Centerville Pizza and Barbeque will be providing the food at the events. Bethany has joined as a $1,500 sponsor with a banner on the stage.

Photography/Cultural/Interactive Art: Marlene reported that she and Kristen have met with the library staff to work on the event for the fall of 2014. No country has been decided yet.

Announcements: Ginny was reappointed for another year as our chairperson. The City's volunteer dinner is April 11, 2013 at Yankee.

All committee reports are in order and all planning seems to be complete. There was some discussion to check with people about best days/times for our meetings.

Ginny and Marlene e both mentioned a couple of new names for the commission, keeping in mind they must be Centerville residents since we are spending City tax dollars. Currently, we have four openings available.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:30 PM.
