

Centerville Arts Commission Meeting

May 1, 2013

The Centerville Arts Commission meeting was opened by President Ginny Strausburg. Commission members present were: Ginny Strausburg, Betty Lou Carney, Sue Butler, Mary Scott, Marlene Orendorf, Jim Collins, Kay Wick, and Tom Bankston. Members absent were: Joanie Haverstick, Sierra Kelley and Walt Smucker. Donna Vella was an invited guest.

The minutes of Feb. 6th and March 6th were approved. Motion to approve was made by Tom Bankston and seconded by Sue Butler.

Art Gallery committee has completed its schedule for the rest of the year.

Classical Series is working on Original Night which will be held on May 8th at the Centerville High School. Original Night consists of student showcasing the original compositions. The committee will be working on the Christmas Walk in the near future.

The Farmers Market Poster Contest had fewer entries than the previous years. Winning posters will be selected at the end of May.

Digital Photography Workshop/Contest. Entries for the contest will be accepted from Aug. 1st through Aug. 30th. Winner will be selected by September 20th and displayed at the Centerville Police Station from Oct. 25th through December 31st.

Summer Concerts. Stage Manager has been hired. Singers have been identified and flyers are ready to go to schools. Green paper was voted on for the flyers. Commission member were asked to sign-up for Sunday night performances.

Earth Day was held with approximately 190 children in attendance. It was a cold day, but park like events kept the children busy.

Only announcement was a reminder that we have opening on the Commission. The meeting was adjourned by 8 pm.