

CENTERVILLE ARTS COMMISSION MEETING
October 2, 2013

Members present: Ginny Strausburg, Chair; Sierra Kelley; Kay Wick; Sue Butler, Joanie Haverstick, Betty Lou Carney; and Walt Smucker. Also present Kristen Gopman, Ass't to the City Manager and Belinda Kenley, City Council liaison.

Ginny Strausburg called the meeting to order at 7 p.m.

Belinda Kenley discussed the Committee members' attendance at various offerings. She related that the City Council did not expect the members to be required to attend a certain number of concerts or showings that we are all busy. Belinda felt that Walt could do a good job of estimating attendance at the summer concerts if enough counters were not available. She also felt that greeting, etc. was not required. For additional workers, Maureen Russell Hodgson could be asked if some on her volunteer list would like to get involved.

Sue Butler made a motion to accept the September 4, 2013, minutes and Betty Lou Carney seconded. Motion carried.

Staff Report. The 2014 budget has been submitted the Financial Department. Virginia Hess has been nominated again by the mayor, Mark Kingseed, and Ginny Strausburg. They are getting supporting letters.

Art Gallery. Gary Kunze is leaving his photos on the wall for October. Jim DeLange's glass objects will be in the case. They are sharing this month. There will be no reception. Both displays will be removed the week of October 21 for the October 27 photography reception Classical Series. The Wind in the Woods' concert will be held at the Magsig Middle School on October 6, 2013, at 3 p.m.

Art at the Trace: Next year will be held on February 8, 2014.

Summer Concerts. No report

Interactive Committee. The photography contest had entries from five different counties.

At the November 6, 2013, meeting, each of the committees need to give their final figure for the budget.

The meeting ended at 7:48 p.m.
