

Centerville Arts Commission Meeting Minutes
March 2, 2022

Members Present: Chairperson, Jim Collins, Louise Haun, Kate Bostdorff, Lana Gurieva, Ashlyn Blatz, Jan Colson, Jane Rodgers, John Palcher.

Members Absent: Terry O'Brien, Michelle Van Huss, John Curran, Betty Lou Carney.

Staff Report: Kate advised the members that Laura Filaseta, Event Coordinator, has resigned to spend more time with her family.

There are 54 metro parks, with Centerville having (2), Stubbs Park and Cornerstone Park. Construction at Cornerstone will be completed in August.

Art Gallery: Bley Hack is the featured artist for March in the gallery at the police department.

Jim asked that we set up a schedule for members to attend and be present for the duration of the artist's reception.

Art Event: Plan an Arts Commission dedication of the Cornerstone Park in August. Establish a committee with Jane as Chair. Plan for entertainment, etc.

Classical Series: Jim will speak with John about contacting Tom Bankston for musical groups.

Interactive: Kate and Louise will contact Debe at Woodbourne Library to set up a meeting concerning responsibilities for the CAC art show. Louise has created a record of artists for each month.

Friday events will be June 10; and July 15, Midsummer Night's Dream.

Concert Series: There will be fans for those attending. Police, EMS and Fire will be at the concerts. Placing barricades in front of the amphitheater, installing AC on the left for the bands, etc. will be accomplished.

Centerpieces Mural Program: Using the wall at Marion's for the next mural is being discussed.

Old/New Business: Ashlynn reported on the Tea Party Brunch in 2023. Suggested food cost could be $19.20 each. It would be in the Ballroom at Yankee Trace. Considering donations.

John Palcher commented on the exciting year in CHS sports.

The meeting was adjourned at 7:50 p.m.

Respectfully submitted by Jane Rodgers